

February 2011

Art Show Reception 5:30pm until 7:30pm
on Thursday, the 3rd

February's featured artist, Betty Gerson, comes from a family of story tellers. She sees her art as a continuation of the storytelling tradition, hoping that those who view her work will see their own narrative in her paintings.

Ms. Gerson's pictures are awash with color, a reflection of the love affair she has had with color since visiting the home of Impressionist painter Claude Monet. Come to the library to learn the stories that Ms. Gerson's paintings have to tell.

Visit the Library between Feb. 4 and Feb. 12 to view The Big Read's display on The Harlem Renaissance. Many programs during February will be centered around this year's Big Read selection The Great Gatsby. Don't miss the official kick off during 1st Friday on Newcastle St.
